

DAILY PLANET

ALL THE NEWS THAT FITS

March 19

1999

Senators Smith, Sessions, Landrieu at Center Friday

U.S. Senators Robert Smith of New Hampshire, Jeff Sessions of Alabama and Mary Landrieu of Louisiana will visit Marshall Friday.

Accompanied by congressional staffers, they will be provided briefings on future space transportation programs; the relationship of X-37 and Future X with the Department of Defense; space-based lasers; and optics.

Annual Easter Egg Hunt Sunday at 2 p.m. at Marshall Picnic Area

Civil service employees asked to complete safety survey. Visit
'Inside Marshall'
Safety Web page
for details.

Rudolphi named manager of Solid Rocket Booster Project

Michael Rudolphi has been named manager of the Solid Rocket Booster Project in Marshall's Space Shuttle Projects. Rudolphi was formerly chief engineer of the Solid Rocket Booster Project.

Excavation closes driveway, doorways on west side of Bldg. 4650

The driveway on the west side, south wing, of Bldg. 4650 is closed to allow excavation and placement of new chill water piping. The doorways on the west side are not accessible for entrance or exit.